TRAVEL PROTECTION

Emergencies happen when you least expect it. We highly recommend the purchase of Travel Insurance to protect your vacation investment. The cruise lines and tour companies charge penalties for cancellation, generally ranging from the full deposit amount to NO refund at all. In addition, there may also be charges from the airlines and/or hotel you are using. Travel Insurance protects you while you are out of the country, which your health insurance policies may not cover. Medicare does not cover you if you are out of the country. This insurance plan covers you for short term protection for non-refundable cancellation charges and may vary depending on the specific policy you purchase.

Typical Cancellation Penalties: (actual schedule/penalty amounts may vary by cruise line/tour operator) Most airline tickets are non-refundable and changes to your ticket will incur a change fee (usually ranging from $50 - $200 per person). In addition some hotel reservations are non-refundable or incur a cancellation fee. The following is an example of a cancellation penalty:

Days Prior to departure	Charge per guest
75 to 30 days	Deposit amount
29 to 8 days	50% of total fare
7 days or less	100% of total fare

I am aware of the cancellation penalties associated with my trip, as explained to me by my agent, and by declining the suggested travel protection insurance, I am assuming the financial responsibility of those non-refundable penalties, should I have to cancel or interrupt my travel. Neither Exciting Vacations, LLC, nor my agent, is liable for my penalties due to my decision to decline this insurance.
